WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Six thousand public parties will be held tonight, all over the country, in honor of the fifty-second birthday of the president of the United States and to raise money—for the infantile paralysis curative sanitarium at Warm Springs, Ga., which is so near to his heart. To Franklin D. Roosevelt will come by air and wire warm and gracious echoes of this colossal series of celebrations for the birthday of a president—the first, so far as this writer knows that was ever held in the history of the country.

Telegrams will flash in upon him by the thousand—letters by the thousand. But of all the celebrations the one which will touch him most deeply and intimately will be the dinner party to-night, in his own private quarters in the White House for "The Roosevelt Boys and Girls."

PA NEW OBSERVES

A South Side gasoline station was the scene of five automobiles with frozen radiators Monday afternoon. The steam rising up from the radiators put one in mind of a laundry.

Over in Ohio today the state, at the request of Governor George White, is observing the birthdays of President Roosevelt and the late President William McKinley, jointly. McKinley's birthday fell on January 29th, but Ohio, the state in which he was born, decided to observe it along with today's birthday celebration for President Roosevelt.

Pa New saw an unusual number of men wearing "ear muffs" this morning, on their way to work.

This was a great morning to miss a street car on the outskirts of the city and be compelled to stand around until another one came along. The thermometers hovered around six below on the outskirts of the city, and there was a polar wind emphasizing the fact that it was mid-winter.

Street car patronage got a break today. Many who are accustomed to walk downtown, or drive their auto, were willing to board a street car for the trip.

New Castle and Lawrence County are ready to pay tribute to the president in the balls that are being held as a part of a nation-wide observance. In the cathedral in New Castle.

SOVIET BALLOONISTS MAKE NEW STRATOSPHERE FLIGHT

By LINTON WELLS
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

MOSCOW, Jan. 30.—In a surprise flight, three Soviet balloonists today established a new unofficial world's altitude record by ascending almost twelve and one-half miles into the stratosphere.

Carrying on an uninterrupted series of meteorological and cosmic ray observations, the balloonists rose to an altitude of 20,600 metres (12,433 miles), and because of lack of visibility and bitterly cold weather, decided to land near the town of Jeleznovodsk, 50 miles southeast of Moscow.

The balloonists were M. Fedotkin, noted Soviet aeronaut, his assistant, M. Ousyskin, and M. Vassenko, constructor of the gas-bag. The flight was made in the "Osoviakhim No. 1," a huge bag with a capacity of more than 800,000 cubic feet, constructed by the Soviet Civil Aviation organization in an attempt to better the mark of 11.8 miles set a few months ago by Soviet army balloonists.

Although the officially recognized world altitude record is 11.5 miles, established by Lieutenant Commander T. G. W. Settle of the United States Navy in a flight from Akron last November, Soviet authorities regard today's mark as a new world's record.

Post Office Officials Of Administration Had Free Airplane Junket

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—With Postmaster General James A. Farley on the witness stand, a revelation that post office officials of the Roosevelt administration enjoyed a free airplane junket to Texas at the expense of American Airways was made today before the Black senate committee.

Farley was severely grilled by Senator Austin (R) of Vermont. Austin asked Farley to tell whether post office or other government officials and employees enjoyed free rides on government subsidized aviation lines.

The contracts specifically permit certain post office officials and employees to ride on airplane lines, in pursuance of their official duties, said Farley.

"I don't know just how many persons are included in this, perhaps 700."

"Was there an order on publicity concerning an airplane trip to Texas on October 17, 1933?" Austin asked.

"Not by me," Farley answered. "Gracious Suggestions"

Details of the trip were unknown to Farley but were managed by (Continued On Page Two)

House Prepares For Passage Of Big Naval Bill

Will Appropriate $500,000,000 To Build Navy Up To "Treaty Strength"

BILL AUTHORIZES PLANES AND SHIPS

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—With preparedness sentiment sweeping congress as war clouds gather in the far East, the house today prepared to pass the $500,000,000 Vinson bill for a "treaty navy."

Democratic leaders asserted there was comparatively little opposition to enactment of the measure, which emerged from the house naval affairs committee by unanimous vote. Approval of President Roosevelt to plan to build the navy to the full strength allowed by the Washington and London treaties—and keep it there—apparently crumpled the opposition of the once strong "little navy bloc."

Having given up hope of halting the measure in the house, peace organizations were organizing a national campaign in the hope of killing it in the Senate.

To Build More Planes

The measure was enlarged when the naval affairs committee decided to propose an amendment authorizing a "treaty strength" aviation force in the navy. The program calls for 1,184 planes at a cost of $95,000,000.

With the passage of the measure, a naval expansion program costing more than $700,000,000 will be under (Continued On Page Two)

President Will Sign Gold Bill This Afternoon

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Roosevelt will sign the gold bill at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, and immediately thereafter will engage in a conference with his principal monetary advisers over matters of policy and administration.

The following were asked to the white house for the conference: Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, Gov. Eugene R. Black of the Federal Reserve Board; George L. Harrison, governor of the New York Federal Reserve Bank; Professors James H. Rogers and George F. Warren, monetary advisers; and Herman Oliphant, treasury counsel.

A proclamation devaluing the dollar to 60 cents will be delayed for a time until organization of the new plan is completed.

Shamokin School Damaged By Fire

Ten Firemen Overcome By Intense Cold In Battling $75,000 Flames

(International News Service)

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 30.—Loss in the fire that destroyed the Washington School here was estimated by authorities today at $75,000 as plans were made to rebuild the structure where 700 pupils attended classes.

Ten firemen were overcome by the intense cold which froze water lines and hampered them greatly. Fireman Daniel Breining suffered a concussion of the brain when he was struck by falling plaster while coupling his way through to the second floor.

An explosion of turpentine being used for CWA workers who were painting the inside walls of the building was blamed for the explosion.

Only One Death From Cold In State Reported; Icy Gale Is Subsiding

(International News Service)

Pennsylvania's thermometer today recorded new record breaking lows as a mid-winter cold snap huffed and puffed its frigid winds the length and breadth of the state. Slight relief was in sight for tonight.

Only one fatality had been attributed to the cold in the state. Scores of accidents were recorded, however, in larger communities and hundreds of cases of frost bite were treated by physicians and doctors.

Truck Driver Dies

George Johnson, 74-year-old Philadelphia truck driver, was frozen to death in that city where the temperature sank to 10 during the night and was slowly rising today.

The coldest point in the Eastern section of the state was at Mt. Pocono where the mercury sank to 14 below yesterday. Government workers there were confined to the barracks after three of them suffered frozen ears.

Harrisburg's low was six above with little change in temperature forecast for today. Wilkes-Barre recorded a low of five above and Mountain Top, Luzerne county, saw the low sink to four below.

Sub-Zero Weather

Temperatures at Pittsburgh slumped below zero for the first time this year, the official figure being one below. In outlying sections, (Continued On Page Two)

Hitler Makes Treaty Attack

Assails Treaty Of Versailles In Speech To Reichstag On Anniversary

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—A slashing attack upon the treaty of Versailles as a document which "perpetuated hatred" was delivered by Chancellor Adolf Hitler today at a special session of the Reichstag commemorating the first anniversary of his rise to power in the Reich.

With characteristic forcefulness, Chancellor Hitler used this theme to launch the Nazi Third Reich on the second year of its existence. His choice of this topic was regarded by political observers as an indication that Germany, now freed from the shackles of the League of Nations, (Continued On Page Two)

Communists Stage Demonstration In Paris As New Cabinet Is Being Formed

(International News Service)

PARIS, Jan. 30.—Premier-Designate Edouard Daladier, after many hours of anxious effort, completed formation of a new cabinet today while communist mobs staged serious riots which completely paralyzed the streets of downtown Paris.

While police were struggling to suppress the disorders, which started with a chauffeurs' demonstration in the Place De L'Opera, Daladier submitted to President Albert Lebrun his list of new ministers, which was expected to be approved immediately.

As expected, Daladier retained for himself the post of foreign minister, which he will hold jointly with the membership. Thus, in a determined effort to bring an end to the grave crisis facing France, Daladier ousted Joseph Paul-Boncour, veteran of many governments in which he held foreign and war portfolios.

Thousands Of Greetings

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Streaming endlessly into the executive offices' birthday greetings for President Roosevelt almost literally buried the White House mailing room today.

The greetings were of almost every conceivable kind. At noon, more than 150,000 telegrams had been received. Hundreds of presents, large and small, and almost innumerable postcards and letters had piled into the White House.

The presents came from all quarters of the globe. There were square boxes, triangular boxes, paintings, and knick knacks of all sorts, ranging from those worth a penny or so to beautifully wrought carvings worth considerable money.

New Castle Ball Plans Complete

Expect Large Crowd At The Cathedral Tonight To Honor President

PROGRAM STARTS AT NINE O'CLOCK

New Castle will wish President Roosevelt "happy birthday" through the medium of its own gay President's ball in the Cathedral tonight.

And through the same medium it will pour into the coffers of the Warm Springs (Ga.) Foundation for Infantile Paralysis—the institution nearest the president's heart—a sizeable sum for promoting the medical war against infantile paralysis.

Promptly at 9 o'clock a popular orchestra of the district will strike up the music to which couples may dance until 1 a. m., taking time, of course, for the colorful features that have been arranged for the evening.

Predict Largest Crowd

General Chairman W. Walter Braham didn't hesitate this morning to predict that "probably the Cathedral's largest dance crowds" would be in attendance to share the festivities and Ticket Chairman Donald F. McGrew announced that reports to him forecasted an attendance of large proportions.

No matter how large the crowd though, the general committee, anxious to assure everyone a good time, has seen to it that a capacity throng can well be handled.

Featuring the evening will be the auctioning of or raffling of a huge birthday cake donated by the Lawrence County Bakers' association. (Continued On Page Two)

PRINCIPALS IN HONEYMOON DEATH

Investigation has been launched by police at Mount Holly, N. J., into the "honeymoon" death of Willard F. Edouard, above, 45, of Los Angeles, who assertedly shot himself in his automobile on a busy thoroughfare near Mount Holly while his bride of 13 days, Edna Mae Edouard, sat in the car with him. Mrs. Edouard is shown wearing men's trousers in which she was dressed when found weeping beside the body of her husband.

Bremer's Fate Still Mystery

Kidnapers Of Wealthy St. Paul Man Refuse To Start Ransom Negotiations

FEAR FOR VICTIM NOW INCREASING

(International News Service)

ST. PAUL'S Minn., Jan. 30.—The kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy bank president, still maintained their mysterious and ominous silence today, refusing to begin negotiations for payment of the $200,000 ransom awaiting them.

Fears were being expressed on the thirteenth day of Bremer's absence that the kidnapers may have murdered their victim. The missing man's family and friends, however, remained optimistic that a settlement will be reached shortly.

Repeatedly appeals made by the distraught father, Adolph Bremer, asking the kidnapers to communicate with him, have gone unheeded.

Not since January 17, the day Bremer was forced from his automobile and driven away, has any communication come from his captors. On that day a note was received demanding the huge ransom which the aged Bremer says is awaiting delivery.

State Witness In Touhy Trial Has Disappeared

Important Witness In Case Against Touhy Mob For Kidnaping, Is Being Hunted

GUARD DOUBLED IN COURTROOM

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Sudden disappearance of an important state witness today caused authorities to strengthen the already imposing guard stationed at the criminal courtroom where Roger Touhy and three gang henchmen are on trial for the $70,000 ransom kidnaping of John "Jake the Barber" Factor.

An all night police search failed to uncover any clue as to the whereabouts of the missing man. James Wagner, proprietor of a river road saloon.

Blow For State

Wagner's disappearance was admittedly a blow and a challenge to the state's attorney seeking to send Touhy, Gus Schaefer, Albert Kator and Edward McFadden to the electric chair for the sensational kidnaping of Factor. Prosecutors had counted on his testimony to bring (Continued On Page Two)

Rexford Piersol, 56, C. W. A. Foreman, Burned To Death

(International News Service)

GREENVILLE, Pa., Jan. 30.—Rexford Piersol, 56, CWA foreman in North Salem township, near here, was burned to death today when his home was destroyed by fire.

Piersol, who lived alone, is believed to have been trapped as he slept. The fire was not discovered by neighbors until the home was enveloped in flames.

Dr. William Applegate, Mercer county coroner, is investigating the tragedy.

Aimee To Return To Court Today

Suffers "Fainting Spell" In Breach Of Contract Suit On Monday

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30.—Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton today steered herself to return to court where she is defendant in a $240,000 breach of contract suit that has already caused her to suffer a "fainting spell" and has brought hints of sensational charges to come.

Two strenuous legal tilts proved too much for the evangelist. She was forced to give intimate details of her married life with her retored singer husband, David Hutton in a deposition in their contested divorce suit, and in addition was a witness in the contract suit instituted by the late J. Roy Stewart, film director.

Dillinger Being Rushed East In Guarded Plane

Noted Desperado To Be Landed At Chicago This Afternoon

BRIEF STOP MADE AT FT. WORTH, TEX.

Harry Pierpont, Pal Of Dillinger, Makes Desperate Effort To Escape

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—The airplane bearing John Dillinger, captured Indiana desperado, from Tucson, Ariz., was scheduled to arrive at Municipal Airport here at 4:42 p. m. today, the American Airways announced.

Squads of heavily armed police were assigned to meet the plane and escort Dillinger and his four Indiana police guards to East Chicago, Ind., where the bandit faces trial for murder and bank robbery.

Make Brief Stop.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Jan. 30.—The plane carrying John Dillinger, noted desperado, back to Indiana from Tucson, Ariz., landed here today for a brief stop and then took off at 9:30 o'clock after the prisoner had been given breakfast.

Dillinger, closely guarded, was served breakfast at the airport. He ate under the shadow of a machine gun.

WILL ROGERS
says:

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Senate layed off Monday on account of Huey Long going to speak Tuesday. They give 'em a day off to get rested up.

Huey give me a dose of my own medicine. I generally talk everybody to death, but he got ahold of me and rehearsed his speech on me. He was trying it out on the dog. I can remember it myself, in case anything happens to him.

Since the big money stabilization bill passed Saturday, everybody here is in fine cheer, and great optimism, senators all practicing dancing for the big ball. Our president is getting to have a wonderful birthday, but many a lady's feet is going to suffer for their loyalty.

Yours,

Will Rogers.

If I were down in Washington today, and had the time to call the white house phone, and I could get the president himself and talk to him a moment just alone, or if I saw him as I passed his lawn and he would wave, forgetting place and rank, I think I'd simply wave right back and say, "I wish a happy birthday to you Frank. Informal like and absolute, free of anything that smacks of cant or form, but then he'd likely not be on the lawn, but in the white house where it's snug and warm. And so because I am just where I am, back here in Pennsylvania today, I'll simply write my wishes for him here, the weather's nine above and cold today.

MUSICIANS HEAR ENGLISH PROGRAM

A delightful musical evening was enjoyed by Music Club members on Monday evening when a program of English composers was presented in Highland U. P. Church.

Mrs. J. L. Reed, the president was in charge of the business session after which Mrs. B. K. Thacker acted as hostess for the evening.

In a very able manner, Mrs. M. R. Leavitt, sketched the lives of the composers. The picture landscape idea in music and old traditional style were effectively brought out in the songs and piano selections given so ably and artistically by the performers. Mrs. Charles Strittmatter and Mrs. Miles Myers served as ushers.

Those taking part were: Miss Virginia Woods, Mrs. Edward Conway, Miss Lena Richards, Miss Lila Henschaw, Mrs. Robert Fleming, Mrs. Samuel McCleary. Accompanists were Mrs. Robert Fleming, Miss Katherine Lewis and Albert Taylor. At the executive board meeting, the following were admitted to club membership: Mrs. Ben Agnew, Miss Alice Warner and Paul Browne Patterson.

On February 12 the Music Club will have a visiting guests, the Youngstown Music Club who will present the evening's program.

Little Tot's Party

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Charlotte Rodgers McCormick entertained for her little daughter, Allene, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Rodgers, Delaware avenue, the day being the second anniversary of her birth.

The little tots amused themselves with various toys during the afternoon, while the mothers enjoyed music and conversation. Late in the afternoon the guests were invited to the dining room where the little ones were seated at a small table, prettily decorated and the mothers were seated at a large table, both suggestive of Valentine Day in appointments.

Out of town guests included Eleanor Burns and Emmy Lou Garwig, and their mothers from Ellwood City.

B. P. W. Postpone

As was announced in The News a week or so ago the district meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, which was scheduled for this Saturday evening, has been postponed until April 9.

By mistake, the old date instead of the new was printed in Monday's paper.

Miss Dorothy Heneker who will be the speaker, postponed all of her Pennsylvania engagements because of illness.

MRS. BENJ. BEISEL INSTALLS CHAPTER

A new chapter of the Daughters of the American Colonists was organized Saturday, January 27, in the home of Mrs. John G. Daub, Brighton road, North Side, Pittsburgh, with Mrs. Daub being installed as regent.

Mrs. Eddy Russell Whitey of Philadelphia, state regent, unable to be present, appointed Mrs. Benjamin Beisel of this city, historian of the state society and corresponding secretary of the Kus-Kus-Ka chapter, as the installing officer. Mrs. Allen Chandler of Pittsburgh, was installed as vice regent.

"Yohogania" was the name chosen for the new chapter, whose charter members are from the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Brighton road district. Members from Butler, Beaver and New Castle were present with Mrs. Charles Greer, regent of the Kus-Kus-Ka chapter, representing New Castle, and Mrs. L. E. Christley the Butler members.

Mrs. Charles Thoms, the new chapter historian, gave interesting historical facts recalled by the name of the chapter, Miss Blanche Swope, Pittsburgh, registrar, announced the charter would be ready in time for the chapter to be represented at the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Society at Lancaster in March. After the organization ceremonies a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

PLANNING TO PRESENT PLAYS

Three one act plays, parts for which will be portrayed by leading New Castle folks, will be presented under the direction of the Finance department, Federation of Women's Clubs, sometime after Easter, probably.

Miss Betty Glover is coaching one, Miss Evelyn Pearson, the second, and Mrs. Ralph Cooper, the third one. All of these young women have had much experience and acquitted themselves admirably in coaching other similar productions. Arrangements for these productions will be furthered at the next meeting of the committee which will be held in Highland church February 15.

COUNCIL BOARD TO MEET AT MARKS'

Mrs. L. Marks, Leasure avenue, will receive the members of the executive board of the National Council of Jewish Women in her home Wednesday afternoon.

Coffee will be served at 1:30 and the afternoon given over to business, with a new philanthropic project receiving attention. Plans will also be furthered for the junior-senior meeting next week.

B. P. W. Board

By approval of the executive board of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs which met in the Y. W. C. A. Monday evening, the business meetings in February, March and April will be the second instead of the first meetings of those months.

Hostesses for February will be: first meeting, Miss Alice M. Sterling and Mrs. Sara S. McCune; and second meeting, Mrs. Bertha Smith and Miss Della Glenn.

Announcement is made that Miss Jennie Munroe, chairman of the relations education committee of the state federation will be the guest and speaker at the meeting of March 5. This will be part of the observance of National Business and Professional Women's week.

ASSOCIATION MEETS AT LINDNER HOME

Monday evening the monthly business and social session of the Sabbath School association of the Highland United Presbyterian church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lindner, Euclid avenue, with 45 in attendance.

At the business session John Wallace was named superintendent of the young people's department, and reports were given of the various departments.

After business the committee took charge and W. L. Caslin of the Second church addressed the group, having "Preparation of Lesson by Teacher" as his subject.

A most charming musical entertainment included numbers by Tony Casbro and his violin, accompanied by Elizabeth Koski. He played "Andante Cantabile" by Tchaikowsky, Kreiser arrangement, and "Mazurka" by Milhausk. Richard Johns sang two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. J. L. Reed.

Refreshments were served at a late hour. The committee for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Lindner, Miss Ethel Moore, Beatrice Laverick, Richard Johns and Beulah James.

POETS AND WORKS ARE DISCUSSED

Lives of several poets with their works was the topic for the Current Events class meeting Monday in the home of Mrs. C. J. Baker on S. Mill street.

Those giving very excellent papers were Mrs. W. H. Shipler, who is the president, Mrs. C. J. Baker and Miss Eva Donaldson.

Roll call was answered as usual with a current event and as there are so many interesting things happening in our everyday world now, this period was most enjoyable. Refreshments were a later issue.

February 12 the class will meet with Mrs. Harry Marshall, Sr., on Crawford avenue.

Party For Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Black, Wilmington avenue entertained a group of girls Monday evening in honor of their daughter, Eleanor Louise, who was celebrating her ninth birthday.

Games and music featured the evening and the honored one was presented with some lovely remembrances. Refreshments were served from a table centered with a large cake lighted with nine candles.

Birthday Surprise

Mr. and Mrs. Constantino Vitale, of 115 East Home street were agreeably surprised Monday evening when a group of friends assembled at their home to do honor to Mr. Vitale, who was celebrating his birthday.

Fifty guests were in the group and an evening of music, dancing and a general good time was enjoyed with the honored one presented with a lot of gifts. The large birthday cake was presented by Mrs. Pete Vitale.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baron, Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Vitale, Anthony Vitale, Edw. Gennock, and Mrs. Frank Sheldon, of Ellwood City.

P. H. C. Dinner

Members of the Protected Home Circle will assemble at 6:30 Wednesday evening in the Malta Hall, West Washington street, for a tureen dinner. A business session will follow the dinner.

A. O. H. Club

Members and friends of the A. O. H. club will assemble Thursday at 1:30 in St. Mary's auditorium for a luncheon, to be followed by cards.

G. E. M. CLASS HAS MEETING MONDAY

G. E. M. class of the First Baptist church taught by Miss Beulah Heaton met Monday evening in the home of Miss Elsie Stevenson, Wolfe street.

During the business session, Miss Claire Anderson was elected secretary and treasurer. It was decided to have a "traveling apron" and send it on its journey in the near future. Names were drawn for Gem sisters which are to be kept incognito until January 1935.

Various games and music were pleasures during the social period and at an appropriate hour there was lunch, Misses Irene Perry and Henrietta Bishop, assisting.

On February 16, the class will have a social at the home of Miss Emma Ray on Hillcrest avenue.

COLONIAL TEA FUTURE EVENT

Plans for the Colonial tea which the Current Events class will hold February 22 in Highland U. P. church, were discussed at the regular meeting Monday in the home of Mrs. J. Johnson Fisher on Sheridan avenue.

Mrs. D. N. Keast has been appointed chairman to perfect arrangements and she, with her committee, is putting forth much effort to make the event, which is of an annual nature, a success.

Roll call was answered with current items and the business session was followed by interesting talks on many timely topics.

February 22, Mrs. Ralph Reed of Boyles avenue will be hostess.

Club Meeting

Initial meeting of the P. H. C. members took place last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mary Konopka on Cunningham avenue.

A short business session was held with Mrs. M. Konopka being unanimously elected as president and Mrs. Jennie Ostrosky as secretary-treasurer.

The balance of the evening was spent with bingo and cards with prizes awarded to Mrs. Julia Sharek, Mrs. Katherine Ambrozic and Mrs. Bertha Bethle and Mrs. J. Kwolek. At an appropriate hour, the hostess served a delicious lunch.

The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Viola Mitchell, Summit avenue, on Thursday, February 8.

The following are charter members of the club: Mrs. J. Jopek, Mrs. S. Wienski, Mrs. K. Ambrozic, Mrs. B. Bethle, Mrs. V. Mitchell, Mrs. J. Sharek, Mrs. H. Kopsky, Mrs. M. Konopka, Mrs. J. Kwolek, and Mrs. J. Ostrosky.

Postpone Club

Members of the Re Delta Deck club will be received Tuesday, February 6, in the home of Evelyn Bernine, 426 Northview avenue, instead of this evening, as previously arranged.

Parisian Beauties Feature Cathedral Show Wednesday

A night in Paris via la Parée, company of fifty people will make their debut with one performance only on the stage of the Cathedral auditorium Wednesday night, January 31, at 8:30 p. m. sharp with a carload of scenery, lavish costumes, and twenty-six scenes, with a chorus of twenty parisiennes beauties that no eye since King Solomon's has seen so many adorable creatures. After the inhabitants see this one they will wonder why they ever paid $3.00 to see any show as they will be peeping over the transom at the Folies Bergere, Cafe De Lamart, Moulin Rouge, at the night life in Paris. Ravishing entertainment, befitting a prince or princess of the Congo-Bango, the Dance of Salome before Herod, the Passion Dance, the Hula-Hula, the Can-Can, of Montmartre, and the Havana Rhumba are all pale beside this Tabascoan blast from old Cordova.

And when the curtain rises the audience will be astounded at the loveliest of womenkind. The wizard of modern stage craft at its zenith, and eye-filling spectacle of superb magnificence, a princess ransom lavished with a prodigality befitting a hindu nabob at the Dunbar of Delhi—rich vestments and dazzling gems conspire with the Delectable creatures they adorn to make the Night in Paris show the crowning optical delight of the universe. And there will also be an augmented orchestra of fifteen pieces with two big extra attractions—Ha-Cha-San, the living Venice in bronze, and La-Fanette, in her dance D'Eventail.

Seats are now selling at Fleming's Music Store, 110 North Mill street, New Castle, Pennsylvania. Phone 1292-J for reservations as all seats are reserved as you will have to hurry if you want to avoid the rush.

MARTHA SHRINE VALENTINE PARTY

Among the many social affairs being planned for the St. Valentine season, one of the most delightful will be the Valentine dessert bridge Thursday, February 25, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. with officers and members of Martha Shrine 14 White Shrine of Jerusalem as the hostesses. The affair will take place in the west dining room of the cathedral.

Dessert will be served at 1:30 after which the afternoon will be spent at cards, with auction, contract and 500 in play. A lovely prize will be given at each table.

Mrs. R. G. Leslie is general chairman of arrangements and she is being assisted by Mrs. Estella Weddell, Mrs. Alice Steen, Mrs. Cecil Gowell, Mrs. Anna McKibben and Mrs. Harriet Sweezy.

NAMELESS CLUB ENJOYS BRIDGE

On Monday evening, Miss Lucille Moore entertained the Nameless Bridge Club at her home on Moody avenue.

Clever tallies, portraying feats in horsemanship, were distributed and two tables of contract were enjoyed. A lovely high score award was won by Miss Eloise Cole, Miss Mildred Sneckenberger was a visitor.

At a late hour a delicious lunch was served, Miss Doris Updegraff aiding. A fireside discussion was of much interest.

Miss Marion Rose Randall, Boyles avenue invited the girls to her home February 5.

Surprise Party

In honor of Mrs. J. Kwolek, a birthday surprise party was held in the home of Mrs. K. Ambrozic on East Reynolds street on Sunday, January 21.

The evening was spent playing bingo and cards with the following winning prizes: Mrs. A. Volanski, Mrs. M. Jacob, and Mrs. A. Girard.

Later the hostess served a delightful lunch and was assisted by Mrs. Book.

The honored guest was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. Those who attended were: Mrs. J. Jopek, Mrs. J. Owoc, Mrs. J. Sharek, Mrs. M. Kudelsky, Mrs. A. Volanski, Mrs. M. Jacob, Mrs. A. Girard, Mrs. Book, the honored guest Mrs. J. Kwolek and hostess Mrs. K. Ambrozic.

U. S. NEVER LOSES CONFIDENCE

COME what may, the American never loses confidence in the soundness of his government. This confidence is generated by the knowledge that the resources of his country are practically limitless.

Conditions may become unsettled, things may get out of balance, but the roots of government keep a firm grip upon the solid foundation.

Just how far this confidence extends is to be seen in the over-subscription of the billion dollar security issue offered the public the other day. The issue was placed on the market in the morning. By evening it had been over-subscribed nearly five times. The orders came from small investors as well as from banks and insurance companies.

TOP-NOTCHERS IN FILMS

There is always a certain public interest in outstanding persons and things, whether they appear in the line of aviation, sports, motion pictures or what not. Catering to this interest, it is customary for persons or groups to select what they consider the top-notchers in various activities from time to time.

Accordingly, a poll of 12,000 exhibitors by a motion picture magazine disclosed the following as the 10 biggest money making stars of the screen during the last two years:

Marie Dressler, Will Rogers, Janet Gaynor, Eddie Cantor, Wallace Beery, Jean Harlow, Clark Gable, Mae West, Norma Shearer and Joan Crawford.

The 10 best pictures of 1933, selected by a group of 384 motion picture critics, as determined by another film magazine's annual poll, were listed as follows:

Cavalcade, Forty-Second Street, Private Life of Henry VIII, Lady for a Day, State Fair, Farewell to Arms, She Done Him Wrong, I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang, Madchen in Uniform (German), and Rasputin and the Empress.

Perhaps with precedent in the annals of the stage has been the amazing "come-back" of Marie Dressler, who today, at the age of 60, is acclaimed as one of the most popular and highly paid actresses in the world.

AMERICAN HIGHWAYS A SHAMBLES

A recent release of the National Safety Council points out that laws to control pedestrians on streets and highways may be necessary, unless walkers themselves take steps to eliminate the pedestrian hazard.

In an average year, about one half of the automobile deaths are suffered by pedestrians. And, contrary to the general belief, the pedestrian is not an innocent bystander run down by a Machiavellian motorist. He is, in a great number of cases where death or serious injury results, solely to blame, it is revealed.

Larger cities, for the most part, have laws against jay-walking—the practice of crossing streets against the signal bells or lights. Smaller towns may be called upon to pass similar legislation—pedestrian carelessness isn't limited to the metropolitan centers. Again, thousands of accidents are caused by pedestrians walking on the right on highways and roads, where they can't see cars coming up behind them. It is being urged that this offense be made punishable by a fine, precisely as fines are levied against an automobile operator guilty of driving on the wrong side of the road.

There is great need for unremitting, concentrated educational work against automobile accidents, modernization of driving laws, and law enforcement. The American highway is a shambles—over 30,000 killed in 1933—where the reckless, the incompetent and the careless menace the lives and property of us all.

NRA AND THE DROP IN BANKRUPTCIES

A report to General Johnson shows that in the last half of 1933, the first six months of the NRA epoch, business failures numbered only 7584, against a total of 14,389 in the same period of 1932. The figures are cited by the recovery administration in partial answer to charges that NRA has been unfair to small businesses.

The drop of 47 per cent in bankruptcies from July to December is distinctly encouraging. It would appear to indicate that the worst of the depression assuredly is over and this conclusion seems to be supported by increased production and sales figures in many lines.

But whether the decrease in bankruptcies was due to the beneficence of the NRA or to a general pickup in business caused by the necessity of merchants to replenish stocks and of consumers to purchase food, clothing and other commodities, together with an easing of the bank situation throughout the country, is not accurately known. Since there is no detailed analysis, the NRA leaders may be a little hasty in claiming full credit for the more stable credit condition.

MANY JANUARY BIRTHDAYS

Celebration today of the birthday of President Roosevelt serves to introduce the fact that many distinguished Americans were born in January. Among those born the first month of the year are included: Paul Revere, Revolutionary patriot; Lucretia Mott, Quaker preacher and pioneer suffragist; Stephen Decatur, naval commander; Cyrus Hamlin, famed missionary; Charles Sumner, abolitionist; Israel Putnam and Ethan Allen, Revolutionary commanders; Alexander Hamilton, first secretary of the treasury; William James, psychologist; John Winthrop, colonial governor; John Singer Sargent, painter; M. F. Maury, pathfinder of the seas; Benjamin Franklin, printer, scientist, journalist and statesman; Daniel Webster, statesman and orator; Robert F. Lee and T. J. "Stonewall" Jackson, Confederate generals; Edgar Allan Poe, author; John Hancock, statesman; Joseph H. Choate, diplomat; Samuel Gompers, labor leader; William McKinley, president; Robert Morris, financier of the Revolution; President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and others.

Still, the law of supply and demand does about as well as any. Half of it works.

A WORD TO CLIMBERS

Sometimes you regret that you are not included in the affairs of what you consider an "upper class" of society.

Have you ever considered that you might be less happy and contented if you were a member of that group? How do you know that you would not be such a misfit that you would be considered one of, but not a part of, the coterie?

To be a hanger-on with nobody especially interested in you or your welfare certainly would not be very pleasant.

You could not be your natural self because you would sense the very slight grip of your position and realize that a false move would disbar you.

What satisfaction could anyone get from that sort of social life?

What chance for expansion? Puppets, jumping at the leaders' behest, it were better to remain in a crowd where you represent a personality that is recognized and appreciated.

Your Income Tax

No. 2

FORMS FOR MAKING RETURNS

Forms for filing returns of income for 1933 have been sent to persons who filed returns last year. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to file his return and pay the tax on time, on or before March 15 if the return is made on the calendar year basis, as is the case with most individuals.

Forms may be obtained upon request, written or personal, from the offices of collectors of internal revenue and deputy collectors. Persons whose net income for 1933 was derived chiefly from salary or wages and was not in excess of $5,000 should make their returns on form 1040A, a simple sheet. Persons whose net income was in excess of $5,000, or, regardless of amount, was derived from a business, profession, rents or sale of property are required to use a larger form 1040. Failure to use the proper form presents difficulties to both the taxpayer and the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Therefore, it is emphasized that a taxpayer engaged in a business or profession from which he derived a net income of less than $5,000 is required to use the larger form. The return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer has his legal residence or principal place of business on or before midnight of March 15, 1934. The tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return or in four personal installments, due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15.

WALKING WITH JANET
You who pass life's marvels by
With never a raising of the eye,
May think there's nothing strange or new

Or beautiful in town to view,
Beside with heartaches or with cares
Or busy with your own affairs.
'Tis possible you've grown inclined
To gaze at splendors, partly blind,
And think as duties stern you face
The world is dull and commonplace
If this is now your point of view
You need a child to walk with you.

When I with Janet visit town
And walk the big streets up and down
She pulls me here and hauls me there
To gaze at treasures wondrous rare.
At charms I've missed for many a day.

In admiration I must stay,
I would have said there could not be
So much in all this world to see
As Janet finds to praise and please.
I'll swear on every side she sees
Of lovely things an endless list
Which in my blindness I'd have missed.

With Oh! and Ah! of real delight
She drags me to the left and right,
And everywhere she looks around
Another miracle is found.
To her the world is beautiful
And never dismal, drab or dull.
She races here and races there
To find enchantment everywhere.
And off into myself I say:
'Would I could walk the world this way
And always find and never tire
So much of beauty to admire.'

Saying—'There is a poet to our liking!'

But once, when Sorrow touched my careless fiddle
And gave me melody discordant notes
Wrung from my heartstrings, played at twilight hours,
Worth many times that foolish little rhyming—
The world turned deaf ears and passed by me, saying—
'We have no use for weary songs like those.'

The World At A Glance

New York Is Shocked Tammany Worse Than Thought Recovery Policy to Change?

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—New York is stirred by graft disclosures. Tammany was supposed to be bad. People used to smile concerning that. Tammany helped the poor, people said—and was close to the polyglot population, keeping the multitudes satisfied and quiet.

But when a prison is raided and gangsters are found to rule it, cowering and degenerating weaker inmates, that horrifies.

When the city is found to have paid half a million for a "park site" under water then even the poor sit up. They pay taxes. At least $24,000,000 was spent in condemning real estate owned by the favored.

When Tammany men were found to be on payrolls although never working, that, too, tapped the poor. One city "employee" was absent 303 days a year. One man never reported in five years.

And, although the city cannot meet payrolls or property take care of necessary services to its citizens, former mayors are awarded pensions of $1,000 a month. There is hardly a Tammany henchman of not who does not draw some sort of city pension. For services given? No, as tribute from a meek and down-trodden people!

FEDERAL POLICY
Financial observers in New York believe that a change in governmental recovery policy will occur in less than a year.

The piling up of bank credit and the enormous spending on public projects are pictured in Wall Street as failing of their purpose.

Wall Street believes that all governments will have to come around to its view, even though bankers espouse it.

That view is directly opposed to nationalistic tendencies in virtually all countries. It has no glamor and has been bitterly attacked. Wall Street believes that only by freedom of trade among all countries—and a renewal of "freedom of private business"—can there be any basic step toward a return to prosperity.

Socialists are for the first part of the Wall Street program, but say that "private business has had its chance."

In the opinion of this writer, the government will swing to a middle course. It will endeavor to obtain trade agreements with the state, the government, in complete control of trade. Only by its control of trade, and credits, can the government make trades.

Of course, a war anywhere in the world might disarrange all this and recovery back for a long time. That is a view taken by some in Washington.

The Roosevelt administration, however, is determined to stay out of a war. At least, such is the word passed down the line.

People already seem to have forgotten how the United States entered the last imbroglio—or how and why the war began. If, for example, there now should be a war in Asia or Austria, would the average citizen know why?

CUBA
David Stern, Philadelphia publisher who invaded New York with the purchase of the Evening Post, and who was a great campaigner for President Roosevelt, has become critical.

"The hits the administration a 'whack' virtually every day."
Here's an excerpt from an editorial on Cuba:

"The United States may be a 'good neighbor,' but it does an awful lot of pecking through the curtains before it decides to call on the people next door."

"In fact, its close scrutiny of Cuban governments is rather difficult to square with President Roosevelt's announced policy of non-interference in Latin America."

"And the haste with which we now recognize Mendieta is, in turn, not exactly consistent with our wary attitude toward Grau San Martin."

"The state department begins by saying that the United States requires only that government be 'stable' before it is recognized. Then we recognize the De Cespedes government, which gives the best possible proof of instability by promptly collapsing."

"But we did not recognize the Grau government, which proved its relative stability by lasting longer than the De Cespedes government."

"Now we recognize Mendieta, who has been in office only five days, though there is little to indicate that his regime will be any more stable than that of his predecessors."

"The conclusion is inescapable that the state department is using some criterion besides stability in its choice of which governments to recognize and which to ignore. Was the real reason for snubbing Grau San Martin his reported 'radicalism'? And, if so, what business is it of the United States to condemn the head of a neighbor state because we don't like his politics?"

McKEE
It was only a few months ago that Joseph V. McKee ran for mayor of New York. Today he is practicing law, who often rides to work on the subway. And barely a person recognizes him. Such is glory in this teeming metropolis.

NOT SAFE HERE
A woman swoop in South Shropshire, England, took the place of her brothers when they went to serve in the great war, and has carried on the old family business ever since.

She has a very large clientele and her work extends over a large area. She has deservedly gained a reputation for being a "clean sweep" and her services are in great demand.

She may be seen constantly cycling along the roads with her brushes balanced on her shoulder.

Dressed as a man, with a man's cap on her head, the romance of the little black figure is lost upon those who do not pierce the disguise. One of her customers says of her:

"We who are in the know appreciate the services she gives us and are very proud of our woman sweep."

They would arrest her in these United States for traveling in disguise.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

Historic Anniversaries—1649. Absolute monarchy died in England as the masked headman of a still unidentified man from Britain's throne. The last word: "Remember!" He was buried in the same vault as Henry VIII and one of Henry's queens Jean Seymour, without ceremony. (164 years later the vault was opened for another royal burial, and the lid of Charles' coffin was lifted. The body was in good condition and the head was found to have done his job expertly; the surfaces of the divided portions were perfectly smooth and even. The jet black hair was still thick upon the long, oval head.) Faithful followers did remember; for many decades after the Restoration, Jan. 30 was observed as a day of mourning in Britain.

1862—"A cheese box upon a raft" slid into the water at Greentown, New York, and made the wooden navies of the world obsolete. The 124-foot-long Monitor, constructed by John Ericsson, Swedish engineer, showed in its battle with the Confederate ironclad Merrimack that thereafter iron war ships would be necessary. All her engines and vital parts were below the water

Remodel Two Buildings For New Hotels Here

Remodeling contracts totalling $25,000 have been let by the State Capital Savings and Loan association it was announced today by O. P. Brown, local manager for the company. The contracts include the remodeling of buildings for two hotels and one apartment and store building.

The building on South Mill street in which the company now has its offices, located at 21-23-25 South Mill will be converted into a forty room hotel to be known as the New Capital hotel, the proprietor of which is not yet made public.

Carpenters are already at work rearranging the floor plans of the three story building. The hotel entrance and lobby will be on the first floor, leading into the restaurant and dining room. There will be store rooms on the first floor also. The guest rooms of the hotel will be on the second and third floors.

Zehner Brothers have the general contract and the Clark company the plumbing and heating.

The second contract is for the remodeling and repairing of the old Jefferson hotel on South Jefferson street at the bridge. This will be a 20 room hotel with restaurant and dining facilities with lobby on the first floor. H. C. Barth has the general contract and the Clark company the plumbing and heating.

The third contract calls for the remodeling of the Cochran block at 1213 1/2 South Mill street near Long avenue. The storerooms will be improved, new fronts put in and general repairs made to the apartments on the second floor. Zehner Brothers have the general contract and the Clark company the plumbing and heating.

Work will be pushed and all three projects are to be completed ready for occupancy by March 1.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending 3:30 p. m., January 29, five arrests, on charges as follows: violation of traffic regulations, three; drunkenness, 1; suspicion, 1.

Due to the birth of scores of beer parlors there will be quite an increase in the number of persons who will have to present health certificates to the city health department as the law requires that all persons engaged in the handling of food-stuffs must undergo a physical examination. In every beer parlor food is supposed to be served, and this makes it compulsory that all those who handle food or beverages (unless the latter is served with a straw in the bottle) must visit a physician. After the later makes out his report it is given to the city health officer. Some waiters and waitresses already have presented their slips but some of them have not. Unless they do so this month sanitary police will be on their trail in February.

neer for the Civil Works administration here said in city hall today that employees of the administration are almost ready to construct bridges in Guntion park, a 10 acre plot presented to the city. The stone will come from the Ray street quarry and the timber from Martin Gantz school.

The municipal golf course lake should contain many fish next spring and summer and no doubt anglers will wend their way there when the fishing season arrives. The species consist of all kinds. Not long ago a lake was drained and the fish stocked at the municipal golf course and added to these were eight cans of one day old fish.

There has been a decrease in the number of transients who make nightly application for shelter at the bunkroom in the city building, according to police. Sometime ago the state planned to have transients sent to a concentration camp and those who do not belong in Pennsylvania would be sent from there to the home states. The plan has not yet been put in operation.

Police had a difficult day yesterday and after some of them had patrolled their beats for an hour more they sought warmer quarters—but had to return to the street. One or two of them almost froze their ears. The stiff wind played havoc with the police car and motorcycle drivers. The former got a warm rest when they returned to the police station and the motorcycleists came in now and then to get warm.

No arrangements have yet been made for the holding of a civil service examination for the position of city electrician. A temporary appointment was made some time ago. If illness and injuries continue to pile up Mayor Mayne said yesterday he will require the services of a temporary fireman. Sickness and fractured bones have cut down the quota of the department.

People in charge of the Volunteer Firemen's funds can do with their funds only what the court permits them to do, a member said recently in response to a suggestion by a city councilman that the Volunteer Firemen invest some of their funds in the negotiable paper given as wages to city employees. The negotiable paper draws six percent. No volunteer fireman who draws wages from a public fund was exonerated from personal taxation recently.

And just a few years ago a Congressman who didn't vote right was condemned by the Anti-Saloon league instead of Farley.

Dems Planning For Campaign In Spring

To Ask Roosevelt's Aid In Swinging State To Democratic Rank's

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—In efforts to capture Pennsylvania in the forthcoming elections, Democratic leaders may ask President Roosevelt to deliver a speech in Philadelphia, according to rumors in political circles here.

It was said the plan most favored by party strategists is to have the president make an overnight trip to Philadelphia next October, about a month before the elections. The psychological effect of such a visit and the weight attached to the president's words, it was pointed out, might be of sufficient force to swing the sentiment of voters throughout the state to the Democratic cause.

It has been suggested that the president be asked to speak here next May, just before the primaries, but this plan is frowned upon the grounds that the primaries will not bring the major parties into con-

Scout Court Will Convene On Friday

New Castle District Tribunal
Meets In West Pittsburgh
That Night

The regular court of honor for New Castle district scouts and scouters will be held at West Pittsburgh school on Friday evening, February 2, at 8 o'clock, the occasion being a notable one in that eight West Pittsburgh scouts and leaders will receive Eagle medals. For years the West Pitt boys have been looking forward to this occasion and it seemed only proper to the court of honor that the regular monthly session be held in this town to honor the troop in its own community.

West Pittsburgh 1 came through with its third consecutive win in the county contest last year, and so will receive the two trophies emblematic of that, during the anniversary week exercises.

Dr. G. E. Bennett, chairman of the court, will preside and all scouts and scouters having awards to be made in February are asked to be at West Pittsburgh this Friday evening. The school is at the end of the brick paved street and is easily found.

A board of review for second and first class scout rank candidates will be held at the council office on this afternoon from 4 o'clock on. Each candidate must have his card fully signed up, and first class candidates must have their maps along.

Camp Thomas Boys Enjoy Winter Life

Are Treated For Colds; Floor
Team Stars In Exciting Games

By FRANK BOWES
(Special To The News)

CAMP LOWELL THOMAS, C. C. C., Trout Run, Pa., Jan. 30.—Camp Thomas has entered the sports field with a basketball team worth the hearty support of the whole camp. To date, the team has played and won three straight games, with two of them being local town high school teams. The highly touted team of the Ellinsport foresters, boasting a record of triumphs, fell to defeat before the Camp Thomas boys this week by the score of 23-22.

Comprising the Camp Thomas team are: Louis Ginsberg—Center and captain. Ralph Brooks—Guard. Frank Houser—Guard.

"Hymie" Johnson—Forward. Maurice Long—Forward.

The camp is expecting great things from the fine showing so far. Other games are now being arranged.

Treatment Checks Colds
The whole camp has been treated for sore throats and colds by Lieutenant Free and his two first aid men. Four pills, painting the tonsils with iodine and drops in the nose formed the necessary task of checking the epidemic of colds and sore throats which was growing in camp.

Captain Murfit has stopped all passes to Williamsport as an increasing number of scarlet fever cases have appeared there. The officers of the camp are constantly watching out for the health of their boys.

The elementary work of cutting fire trails and boundary trails is being carried out these snappy winter days by the foresters, garbed in warm winter clothing. Three miles almost is cut every day by the seasoned foresters. Fire trails are necessary to give fire fighters a foothold in checking a fire or in backtracking in case of a forest fire.

The men are now placed in barracks and a new electric light plant has been installed giving the men lights so that they can pass the long winter evenings in more comfort. The camp now has an appearance of a small mountain village.

Medical Men In Greece Disagree On Insull Report

Medical Commission Clashes With Insull's Own Physician On Examination

INSULL DECLARED FIT FOR TRAVEL

(International News Service)

ATHENS, Jan. 30.—An officially appointed medical commission and private physicians of Samuel Insull clashed today on the question of whether the aged Chicago former utilities magnate is able to be deported by tomorrow as ordered by the government.

Dr. Haniotis, one of the commission of two which examined Insull yesterday following his application for another extension of his residence permit on grounds of ill health, told International News Service:

"My orders from the ministry were to report on whether Insull is able to travel, and were not to make an accurate diagnosis. I think Insull is in a position to travel by any type of transportation except the airplane."

Dr. Volas, one of the Chicagoan's own physicians, but surprised at the officials' report and announced he would attempt to fight it.

Meanwhile special police were assigned to prevent Insull's taking secret flight from the country.

Modest man! When he says he's at peace with the universe, he means he's at peace with himself.

Auto Accidents Still Growing

Department Of Motor Vehicles Releases Figures For The Past Year

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—Although fatalities remained practically stationary, automobile accidents in Pennsylvania during 1933 increased 10.6 per cent over 1932 and reached a total of 45,374, the bureau of motor vehicles announced today.

Analysis of accident reports showed that 1,926 persons were killed, 47,908 injured and property damage totaled $5,230,000. Fatalities showed no per cent change over 1932 but injuries mounted 12.1 per cent and property increased 7.3 per cent.

Every type of accident showed an increase in the statistical compilation except collision between automobiles and railroad trains which declined 5.4 per cent. The largest increase was in pedestrian accidents, the 1933 total being 12,645 as compared with 9,880 in 1932, or an increase of 28 per cent.

The comparative figures for various types of accidents:

1933	1932
Collisions with:
Other motor vehicles	24,192
Pedestrians	12,645
Stationary objects	4,257
Street cars	694
Bicycles	512

Egyptologist Is Dead In New York

Twenty-First Death Of Men Present At Tut's Tomb Opening Occurs

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Jan. 30.—Albert M. Lythgoe, prominent Egyptologist, curator emeritus of the Metropolitan Museum, New York, who was present at the opening, 11 years ago, of the tomb of King Tutankhamen, in Egypt, died at Massachusetts General hospital Monday.

Despite a strict veil of secrecy which was thrown about the curator since he entered the hospital last week, it was learned that Lythgoe died after battling for several days to overcome hardening of the arteries.

To the credulous, the passing of the legendary curse which has seemingly followed so many of the men present when the inner door of the ancient Egyptian Pharaoh's tomb was opened in 1923. Archaeologists, however, refuted the superstition.

ENTERTAIN

Alice Oakes and Mrs. Carmen Hawthorne were co-hostesses to a party of friends Friday evening, with 500 as the diversion.

A dainty lunch closed the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hawthorne and daughter Mabel and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walker of New Wilmington were out-of-town guests.

ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. George Cooper pleasantly entertained the members of the Full-O-Pop Club Thursday. The usual thirteen dinner was served at noon and the afternoon was spent so.

To End a Cough In a Hurry, Mix This at Home

Saves Big Dollars! No Cooking!

Millions of housewives have found that, by mixing their own cough medicine, they get a purer, more effective remedy. They use a recipe which costs only one-fourth as much as ready-made medicine, but which really has no equal for breaking up obstinate coughs.

From any drugist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and add granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. The syrup is easily made with 2 cups sugar and one cup water, stirred a few moments until dissolved.

No cooking needed. It's no trouble at all, and makes the most effective remedy that money could buy. Keeps perfectly, and children love its taste.

Its quick action in loosening the phlegm, clearing the air passages, and soothing away the inflammation, has caused it to be used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its healing effect on throat membranes. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Police Don't Want To Stand On Their Heads To Read The Figures

(International News Service)

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., 30.—Local police are having trouble with motorists who carry their 1934 license plates upside down.

John Moser, of Tampa, Fla., was warned here that, although Florida may approve inverted tags, Pennsylvania police officials are not accustomed to standing on their heads to read the numbers of passing cars.

Moser was taken to the local police station after an officer noticed that both his Florida plates were upside down. Police let him go with a warning when he explained that the state of Florida this year issued a new device for carrying the plates and that the only way he could use the device was by placing the tags in an inverted position.

Several days ago city police also arrested a local motorist who had plate No. 6666 on the front of his car and plate No. 9999 on the rear. It developed that one of the plates had been put on upside down.

LEESBURG NOTES

The many friends of Roy Orr are pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from a long period of illness.

Carmen Hawthorne has received word that his grandfather, Welker Carter, has reached his destination in Florida.

Mrs. J. C. Offutt entertained Ella Scollard, Carrie Baughman and Sam Oakes at a 12 o'clock dinner Wednesday.

NEW GALILEE

Elaine Gray is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. T. L. Linzey and daughter Martha Jane, spent Friday in Beaver Falls.

Mrs. Gilbert Boone and daughter, of Ellwood City were recent guests of Mrs. Walter Gray.

Mrs. Purvis, of College Hill, Beaver Falls, is spending a week at the home of J. G. Forsythe.

Miss Helen and Dorothy Garvin entertained their club at their home Friday evening at a covered dish dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Aten are moving from their present location to the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ethen Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dryden have returned from a few days stay with their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Olsen Fairchild of Wellington, Ohio.

HUGE HOMESTEADING PROJECT TO BE STARTED

Million Will Get Land Benefits By U. S. Government

Citizens Dependent On Relief Will Be Settled On Sub-Marginal Lands

Plans For Gigantic Homesteading Are Nearly Completed Is Report

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Plans for settling approximately 1,000,000 persons, now dependent on relief, on government-purchased sub-marginal lands, were nearing completion today.

A special committee under Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, is ready to recommend the first of such lands for purchase. Hopkins did not disclose the location.

A fund of $25,000,000 for initial purchases and settlement is to be used. This money was voted in the public works bill at the last session of congress.

The idea of rehabilitating thousands of stranded industrial workers occupied the president and his advisers at the outset of his administration.

Unemployed Relief Hopkins termed it part of the "long range planning" for unemployment relief. It involves eventual decentralization of many big industrial settlements, with workers engaged seasonally in their industrial jobs, and supporting themselves partly on the land.

Several hundred thousand coal miners in both bituminous and anthracite fields, unemployed periodically, will benefit from some of the first operations. Hopkins did not name the regions.

Settlers will be transported by the government to their new farm homes where this is necessary, Hopkins said. Where the workers are not industrially employed, work in the national forests, which will be expanded by huge government land purchases, and other semi-outdoor work will be provided them.

Distribution Of Garments By Red Cross Will End

Are Unable To Supply Demands As Stocks Of Clothing Become Depleted

WILL ASK STATE TO TAKE OVER JOB

Distribution of clothing by the Lawrence County chapter, American Red Cross will be brought to a close here on February 5, it was decided by the executive committee at a special meeting last evening. With their supply of garments depleted and no way of replenishing their stock, the chapter decided that it would be better to quit the task and ask the SERB, or State Emergency Relief Board to take over the work through the county unit here. The stock of clothing which remains on hand at the close of the period when the Chapter will end their distribution, will be turned over to the state.

Men's Clothing Gone At the present time, Chapter officials stated, there are something like 4,500 garments in stock, but these are odd sizes which are infrequently called for. There is no clothing left for men and boys the supply having been exhausted early this winter. All that is left now, for the most part, are dresses for women, stockings, sweaters and undergarments in odd sizes which the Chapter has few calls for.

It is believed that the state emergency relief board will have resources at hand to purchase garments for those demanding them. The local chapter does not have the money for this purpose.

During the emergency which began several years ago, the chapter has taken care of the needs of the unemployed in an excellent manner. Distribution of clothing has been carried on since October 1, 1932 and many of the women who are now working on this task have been on the job daily without a penny of recompense in the year and a half that the work has been carried on.

Garment distribution started with the receipt of yard goods by the chapter which was made up into shirts, dresses, and underclothing.

Have Done Good Work Later the chapter received ready-made garments, which included, socks and stockings, overalls, trousers, jackets, sweaters and the like. The work was started under direction of Mrs. C. J. Kirk who is chairman of the chapter's committee and who supervised the work of having the yard goods made up in the district outside New Castle. Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger was city production chairman.

Later, Mrs. David Kay took over the work, and for many months has been in charge of the production and distribution of the clothing in both the city and county. She has performed a tremendous work for the chapter as have the other women.

These chairmen were assisted by a group of volunteer workers who have labored constantly at keeping the needs of the city and county adequately clothed.

Late last spring a supply of blankets, comforts and sheets was received and the greater part of this supply was held over and distributed this winter.

Hog Processing Tax Is Increased Rate Advances On February 1, And Will Be Further Increased In March

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration has changed the processing tax on the slaughtering of hogs to $1.50 per hundred pounds live weight beginning February 1, 1934. The rate during December and January was $1.00 per hundred pounds live weight.

Beginning March 1, 1934, the processing tax rate will be increased to $2.25 per hundred pounds live weight.

BUSINESS ON UP AND UP IN PHILADELPHIA (International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Setting a record unapproached in the last four years, 355 industrial establishments either located new or expanded existing facilities in Philadelphia during 1933.

This is the largest number recorded by the Philadelphia Business Progress Association since it started keeping such records in 1930. The report compares with 254 in 1932; 304 in 1931 and 260 in 1930.

The association reported also that the decline in the number of new and expanding industrial establishments was checked early in 1933 and from then on there has been a steady and constantly increasing rise.

POST OFFICE SAFE WORKS TOO WELL (International News Service) LEWISBURG, Pa., Jan. 30.—The large safe in Lewisburg's new post-office building works only too well.

Postal business remained virtually at a standstill for nearly a full day while a locksmith struggled with the delicate mechanism controlling the locking device which had become jammed. The tumbler finally moved and the postoffice workers got out the money, stamps, and other valuables.

Salus Suggests Pinchot-Shannon

Philadelphia Political Leader Offers Combination For Spring Primaries

Gifford Pinchot for United States Senator, General Edward C. Shannon for Governor. This is the ticket State Senator Samuel Salus, of Philadelphia has suggested and coming from Salus, a leader in the Vore organization the suggestion is something more than just a curb-stone offer.

"I think this would be a winning combination," said Senator Salus in discussing the combination in Philadelphia. "I am for candidates who will restore harmony in the Republican party. I am an Organization Republican and in the long run I will be for the candidates placed on the Republican ticket whoever they are. But I suggest the Pinchot-Shannon combination because it will appeal to the people."

At the same time State Chairman Edward C. Martin was committing himself to the candidacy of Senator David A. Reed but made no mention of the governorship. "I am for him (Reed) and have been for him" declared Martin. "We are going to win for the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania this year. I have never made a bad prediction on a state fight."

On Court House Hill

There is considerable discussion as to the deed which David and Rebecca Crawford made to the county for the grounds upon which the court house now stands, the issue being as to whether or not the lands would revert to heirs of the original owners in case a new site should be chosen for a court house.

The deed, which was made on June 18th, 1850, transfers land then in Neshannock township. It reads: "That the parties of the first part for and in consideration of $1, to them in hand paid, as well as the further consideration that the public buildings for the said county of Lawrence, shall be erected on the lot of ground or premises hereby granted, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have bargained, sold, alienated, conveyed, released and conveyed and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey to the said parties of the second part and their successors, all their right, title, interest and claim in that certain lot of land situate in East New Castle, Neshannock township, Lawrence county and State of Pennsylvania."

Then follows a description of the property. There is no clause regarding reversion provided it is abandoned. In the discussions which are heard, however, different interpretations are put upon that portion of the consideration reading "In consideration of $1, as well as the further consideration that the public buildings for the said County of Lawrence, shall be erected on the lot." The plot contains one acre and 10 and forty-four hundredth perches.

Fireman E. C. McCracken reports that it takes more than two tons of coal to warm the county buildings on such a day as yesterday. The heating plant, however, is working in good shape.

BOY THIEVES GET BREAK FROM COURT BUTLER, Pa., Jan. 30.—Judge John H. Wilson will permit three Butler youths to complete the present year in the public schools, with the provision that they appear in county court next June to hear penalties for confessed robberies in nine Butler homes.

The boys admitted taking cash and small articles to the value of $171.85. They would enter homes in the absence of the occupants and turn things topsy-turvy in search for valuables.

Attorney W. W. Stevenson, in charge of farm loans, reports that there has been a great rush of applicants for loans of this character. Some of the applicants are being pressed for payment of mortgages held by private individuals, while others desire to get the government money at a lower rate of interest than they are now paying. Titans-Pitt Floor Teams Will Tangle

For First Time Pitt And Westminster Basketball Teams Will Meet In Real Game

GAME WILL BE AT
STADIUM FEB. 21

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Jan. 30.—The addition of the Pitt basketball game to the Westminster college schedule adds considerable interest to the Duquesne-Westminster game in the Sharon high gym on February 3. The Pitts-Westminster contest will be played in the Pitt stadium pavilion on Wednesday, February 21, the first court contest between the two institutions, and one which Don Harrison, Pitt athletic director, and Dr. Carlson, Pitt coach, have wanted to schedule. The necessity of playing league games and two-year contracts with other teams have made such a contest impossible for more than a year. Coach John Davidson, who has defeated both Westminster and Pitt, and that the Dukes play both of these teams again this season makes both the Duquesne game on Feb. 3 and the Pitt game on Feb. 21 important from a district standpoint. While Coach John Lawther's team is not quite so good as it has been, the Dukes and the Titans should give good accounts of themselves in both these contests.

Westminster plays a hard game at Greenville on Wednesday night, meeting the fast Thiel college five in a Tri-state conference game. Then the team will have but three days to get ready for the Duke game in Sharon Saturday night. Advance ticket sale would indicate that a packed gym will witness the game Saturday night.

Trims Oil City

New Wilmington A. A. basketball team topped the Oil City Phalanx team 46 to 31 in a basketball game at the Community House in New Wilmington last Saturday evening. Rose was the big scorer of the game with 14 points, while Gilliland had 11 points and W. Lilly had 11 points.

The game was nip and tuck all the way with Patterson the star New Wilmington guard going out of the game in the first period due to an injured knee. The score at the end of the first period was 9 to 8 New Wilmington. The score at the half was 17 to 16 Oil City, and 27-27 at the end of the third period. The final period found the New Wilmington team with a big lead when Gilliland and Rose started to drop them in.

"Ganzy" Benedict Stars
With 13 Points For Locals
In Victory Monday

WESTERVELT IS STAR PERFORMER

Tin City Rovers basketball team gained a 39 to 32 verdict over the strong Warren Nobils basketball team last night at the Senior High floor with "Ganzy" Benedict playing the star role of the Frasersmen with a total of 13 points. Westervelt of the Warren team ran second in the number of points with 12. Westervelt was one of the classiest performers seen on the local floor this year, according to the fans. The Tin City Rovers fought an uphill fight to make it four victories in a row.

The score at the end of the first period favored the Warren team 9 to 3. The half found the locals trailing 18 to 16, but having spurred somewhat. In the third period the Tin City Rovers took the lead at 30 to 22, and held it in the fourth and final period with nine points against ten for the visitors.

Thursday the Tin City Rovers go to Youngstown, Ohio for a league battle, and on Monday night February 5th will play the Beaver Falls team of the Penn-Ohio league at the Senior High floor.

Germans Celebrate Rule By Hitler At End Of First Year

(International News Service)
BERLIN, Jan. 30.—In exuberant mood according to the expressed wish of the government, Germany today celebrated the first anniversary of Adolf Hitler's accession to power.
An important address by Chancellor Hitler before the Reichstag, assembled solely for the occasion, was the feature of the day. He was expected to give a resume of the accomplishments, both at home and abroad, during the first year of the third Reich.

RAILROAD SHARES
ARE OUTSTANDING

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The stock market moved into new high ground for the movement today under the stimulus of strength in the commodities and imminent dollar stabilization around the 60-cent level.

Gains in the principal issues ran to more than 2 points and trading was heavy. Railroad shares were among the outstanding features of the advance with Atchafalaya and Illinois Central gaining more than a point each. New York Central, Southern Railway and Southern Pacific scored lower gains.

Motor shares also were taken in volume with General Motors reaching a new 1933-34 high while Chrysler and Hudson scored fractional gains.

Consolidated Gas was a feature in the utilities rising more than a point and lending a strong tone to United Corp., Stone & Webster, and other lower priced shares. In the commodity markets wheat, corn and the other grains scored fractional gains and cotton ran up 25 cents a bale. The rubber market, however, succumbed to profit-taking.

President To Be Honored Tonight

Big Community Birthday
Ball To Take Place In
Shelby Auditorium

OUTSTANDING
SOCIAL EVENT

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Ellwood City is bedecked in the holiday national colors today in honor of the 52nd birthday anniversary of the president of the United States. This evening he will be paid fitting tribute in the Shelby Auditorium where people of Ellwood City are holding a big birthday ball in his honor.

The proceeds of the ball will go towards the Georgia Springs institution for infantile paralysis, to which the president is giving his support.

This paramount social event of the year here is scheduled to get under way at 9 o'clock. The Shelby Club House presents a beautiful scene today in its clever decorations and national colors.

In the main hall or auditorium round dancing will take place. Square dancing will occur on the first floor, with Harry McCloskey calling the figures.

Those not dancing can play cards in another room which will be in charge of Ray Johnston and Harold Cartwright.

At 11:15 all activities will cease so as to hear the president, who will be on the air at that time. A clever and beautiful dance program has been prepared for this occasion. It is in peach color having a cut of President Roosevelt on the cover. On the first page the people of Ellwood City extend their congratulations to the president on his 52nd birthday anniversary. On the following pages the remaining events of the evening are listed. These include a cake walk; twenty dances for the evening; names of the purchasers of honor tickets (25 in number); donors, patrons, and patronesses; and a sincere thanks of the committee for making the affair a success.

An amplifying system has been arranged for this occasion. Practically all available tickets have been sold. Extra tickets can be purchased at the door, the committee announced.

Miss Irene Ross
Entertains Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Miss Irene Ross entertained the members of the Oletta Bridge club last night at her home on Glenn avenue. Mrs. Charles Turner was a special guest.

Two tables of contract bridge occupied the attention of those present for the greater part of the evening at the close of which Mrs. Clifford McDanel was presented with the high score award.

At an appointed hour the hostess with the assistance of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Ross, served a dainty luncheon. Mrs. Lela Faurie invited the club to meet at her home on Second street in two weeks.

Ellwood High At
Monaca Tonight

Blue And White Passers Hope
To Win Three Straight
Upon Invasion

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Coach "Ganz" Benedict's Ellwood City High passers are out for their third straight victory tonight when they invade Monaca for a battle with Coach Stan Berkman's cagers. The Reserves of both schools will play in the preliminary game.

Inbued with the spirit of winning the blue and white team is out to avenge an earlier defeat at the hands of Monaca in their inter-sectional battle. Obtaining the much needed confidence in their recent victories, the locals show promise of being a team to be reckoned with in the future.

Coach Benedict will start the same line-up that has clicked in the past two games. This will have Robuck and Latiano at the forwards, Lamenza at center, Bunney and Vandrell or McFadden at the guards.

Mrs. Ferd Zeigler
Pleasing Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Members of the Monday Evening Bridge Club, assembled at the home of Mrs. Ferd Zeigler on Pittsburgh Circle last night for their regular meeting.

Bridge was the chief diversion of the evening with two tables in play. Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Anna Baker of Akron, O., and Mrs. J. D. Kirk held the high scores at the conclusion of the game.

An added feature was the serving of a luncheon by the hostess, as a closing event of the evening. Mrs. T. V. Barnes will be hostess to the club in two weeks at her home on Lawrence avenue.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Twenty members and two leaders of the Nightengale Girl Scout Troop held an interesting meeting last night in the U. P. church. Some work on first aid and the Morse code was done. Also preparations were made for the Court of Awards which was postponed until Feb. 23. A social time followed.

Claims Property
Damaged By Plant

Equity Suit Of Frank Rocco
Against Ellwood Firm To Be Heard Thursday

Judge R. L. Hildebrand has set next Thursday at a time for hearing an equity suit brought by Frank Rocco against the Standard Engineering Company of Ellwood City. Rocco owns property at 308 Wayne avenue, Ellwood. He claims that it was fitted up for a gymnasium and later the house was occupied as a residence. The Aetna plant adjoins his property and a crane is operated near by.

It is claimed that in handling iron with this crane, scraps of iron have been thrown against the Rocco house, and through the roof. It is also alleged that the vibrations from the plant are wrecking his house. He asks $3,255.75 for damages actually done, and claims that by reason of the proximity of the plant his property has been depreciated $15,000.

The Standard Engineering Company, in an answer filed denies that anything like the damage asked has been suffered by the plaintiff.

Club Meets With
Mrs. E. B. Yahn

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Mrs. E. B. Yahn opened her home on Spring avenue Monday afternoon for the hostessing of the members of the B. Y. F. Club.

Those present whiled away the hours around two tables of bridge at the close of which Mrs. George Rapp and Mrs. Walter Jackson received the high score awards.

An appetizing luncheon was served by the hostess later in the day, much to the pleasure of those present. The club will meet again Feb. 10.

CLASS MEETINGS

Plenty Of Occupants
For Ellwood Jail

All Cells In Local Lock-up Are Filled With Drunks
Last Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—The long neglected Ellwood City Jail is getting plenty of attention in the past few days.

For the first time in years, all the cells were occupied by arrested persons. In this particular case they were all drunks. It seemed that they were a little over enthusiastic over the opening of the local state liquor store last Wednesday.

Surprise Honors
Gladys McDanel

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—Miss Gladys McDanel was agreeably surprised last evening when a group of friends invaded her home on the Ellwood-Zeilenople road to help celebrate the occasion of her birthday anniversary. Although taken by surprise she was a pleasing hostess entertaining the guests in a hospitable manner.

Games and contests whiled away the hours pleasantly. At an appropriate time a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Roy McDanel assisted by Miss Vesta Householder. The honor guest was again surprised when she was presented with an array of beautiful gifts.

Sharing the event were: Vesta Householder, Ada Graham, Mildred Warren, Gus Hempe, Lester Wagner, Howard Syphrit, Clarence Sargent, Lewis McDanel, Mr. and Mrs. William Flecken, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hazen and Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDanel, all of this vicinity and Miss Margaret McCune of New Castle.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS
ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 30.—In honor of Mrs. Jesse Brown of Frisco, Mrs. Charles Hauserman delightedly entertained a circle of friends at her home at Frisco recently. There were 25 present to take part in the various activities.

The hours were spent informally with music and chat and at an appropriate time the hostess assisted by her daughter Leona served a tempting repast. Mrs. Brown was the recipient of a collection of lovely and useful gifts.

Slayer Who Faced Death Five Times Is Granted Pardon

Frank Maley, Imprisoned 23 Years In Slaying, Will Walk Out Free Man

Plans To Return To His Home In Jugo-Slavia; Holding Up Wednesday Plans

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—Frank Maley, the man who faced death five times, is going home in a couple of days. Today he was looking forward not so much to the new suit and money they will give him at Western Penitentiary but to his freedom. The state board of pardons has decreed that Frank has paid his debt to society for the killing of a man 23 years ago.

In 1911 Frank first heard the words spelling his doom tumble from the lips of Sheriff Judd Bruff. That was the beginning. Four times after that, Bruff told him to prepare himself for death on the gallows.

Sentence Commuted Finally, however, there came another order. This was to the effect that one Frank Maley should spend the rest of his natural life incarcerated behind prison walls.

Twenty years of life spent in the forbidding atmosphere of the "pen" have left indelible marks on Frank. His voice falters.

Back in Jugo-Slavia, his sister is awaiting his return, the pardon board tells Maley.

"You must return to Jugo-Slavia," Maley wants to, he says. Because when he gets back to Jugo-Slavia he has a job waiting for him.

Oh yes, Maley finally adds, his sister's daughter has postponed her wedding date until Frank gets back. No wonder there was trace of a sob in his voice as he concluded:

"They're holding up the wedding for me."

To Raise Rabbits On Game Preserve

State Commission Is Having Difficulty In Getting Western Stock

(International News Service) WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Jan. 30.—The state game commission's first large-scale experiment in propagation of native wild rabbits is under way near here at the new state game farm.

The first shipment of the wild cottontails are now hopping about in the 30-acre propagation area. CWA workers have almost completed the ten pens which eventually will accommodate the 250 rabbits with which the experiment will begin in the spring.

The commission last fall was forced to make provision for breeding its own rabbit supply for restocking purposes when the western state where Pennsylvania has been obtaining its supply threatened to clamp down the lid on further exports of the animals.

Under the supervision of Earl Greenwood, the farm superintendent, CWA workers also are setting up the equipment for hatching and raising ringneck pheasants, which will be carried on simultaneously with the rabbit experiment.

The hard problem is to keep wages down to $12 a week and sell the workers five million new cars.

Milk Dealers Get Licenses

License Applications Mailed To Nearly 6000 Milk Dealers In Pennsylvania

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Jan. 30.—Regulations covering exemptions from licensing provisions of the new milk control act were being considered by the milk control board today as it awaited the return of license applications sent to nearly 6000 dealers.

Although exemptions from regulations as specified in the Buckman control act have not been drawn, the board warned that no exemption could be granted to any person or firm handling dairy products.

A special force of employees from the Department of Revenue has been arranged for by the board to speed the work of bonding and licensing dealers.

Nathaniel Peffer To Speak Tonight

Noted Author And Lecturer Will Make Address In Y. W. C. A.

New Castle will have a distinguished guest this evening in the person of Nathaniel Peffer, author, traveler and lecturer, who will deliver an address at 8 o'clock this evening at the Y. W. C. A.

Mr. Peffer, who has lived for many years in the Far East, a great part of the time in China, will speak on a subject with which he is very familiar, "Storm Over Asia."

He has had a great number of experiences that have enabled him to give an intensely interesting interpretation of conditions in the Far East. In China he was a correspondent and at one time editor of the American paper published there.

Herbert Kirk will be the chairman of the gathering tonight and will introduce the speaker.

This is the fourth of a series of discussion lectures sponsored by the League for Industrial Democracy and brought to the city by a committee of interested men and women.

SCHOOL PROJECTS BEING CHECKED

Miss Helen Crawley, attached to the State CWA offices, is in the city today working with the school authorities in checking projects that have been undertaken in connection with the schools. She is also surveying the field to see what other "white collared" projects can be started here.
